

MRS. KLASSEN'S CLASS

OCTOBER 2015

OUR CLASS WEBSITE can be found at www.klassenskinders.weebly.com. Check out the website for pictures, important dates, great online resources and more.

The HOLIDAYS are quickly approaching. We will have plenty going on. Be on the lookout for opportunities to send in materials or volunteer your time on projects if you're interested. It takes a village!

We made APPLESAUCE last week and it was a huge hit. The kids wanted me to make sure you had the recipe. We used two bags of small apples, ½ cup of sugar, ½ teaspoon of cinnamon, and 1 ½ cups of water. Cook in the crockpot on high for three hours, mash, stir and serve!

HALLOWEEN
(FRIDAY AT 12:15)

Friday will be a really fun day for us! Students may wear their costumes to school and the parade will begin at 12:15. If you can't make it, I'll be taking lots of pictures for the website! We will have a small party after the parade until specials start at 1:20.

Please note, I have told students it may not be wise to wear their favorite costume to school as we will be busy all day inside and out, but feel free to send them in if you aren't worried about it.

A NOTE FROM MRS. KLASSEN

It's that time of year! The students are getting comfortable with their classmates, teachers and the work we do at school.

We still have a long road ahead of us before Thanksgiving Break. Please make sure your child is working hard on their homework and sight words. Now is the time to push it into high gear! As always, feel free to get in touch: (573)489.3100 or asia.klassen@sccpss.com

EVERY FRIDAY...

On Fridays we are testing students on their reading folders and their sight words. Our goal for students by the end of October is 50 and 100 by December.

We have a long way to go! Make sure you are getting plenty of practice in at home. I can't stress enough how important this is.

Reading logs in the back of the red (daily) folders need to be filled out by the end of the month. Book-It coupons are here and students who have completed their reading logs will earn free pizzas from Pizza Hut each month.

Homework needs to be completed every week!
